

Marc P. Chinoy Speaks About Managing a Mid-Size Company for Growth and Profit”

Regis President, Marc Paul Chinoy presented “Managing a Mid-Size Company for Growth and Profit” to a working forum at the Enterprise Center at Salem State College in Salem, Massachusetts on April 24, 2008. The workshop focused on key management skills needed as companies add employees and approach new markets.

Chinoy took the group through exercises related to delegation, organizational development, strategic planning, and the recruiting of talent. The session was attended by a wide range of participants, including small to midsize business owners and individuals interested in acquiring marketplace skills.

An audio of the presentation may be found on the Salem State College website at <http://www.enterprisectr.org/managingamidsizecompany114.html>