

Press Release

Regis Associate active in his community

The Regis Group, Inc. (TRG) of Leesburg, Virginia is pleased to announce the election of TRG Senior Associate David Basch, PCC to the Board of Directors of The Center for Creative Education, a non-profit organization that delivers innovative, high-quality arts programs to underserved schools and communities in the North East Region. At the Center's annual meeting on Sunday, July 6, David Basch was elected to the Board for a three-year term.

"I am delighted to be a part of this important organization and to contribute to it's mission of making a difference in the lives of young people through the arts".

David W. Basch served in a leadership role for over 25 years at the global ad agency, Saatchi & Saatchi. Basch provides marketing guidance to organizations intent on growth and transition coaching to top professionals. Basch is Professionally Certified Coach (PCC).

TRG provides planning, guidance, and decision support to leading professionals in healthcare, telecommunication, the law, and higher education worldwide.

More information about CCE can be found on their website: www.CCE-Kingston.org and about TRG on their website: www.regisgroup.com.

David Basch, PCC: 845 626 0444
TRG: 703 777 2233